

Center for Healthy Communities and HealthLink Miami Valley Presents:

“Effectively Serving the Growing Hispanic Community”

June 26, 2007

Madison Lakes Park Lodge

581 Olive Road

Dayton, Ohio

(Free parking)

Registration and Refreshments at 8:00 am

- Increase cultural awareness
- Tools for service delivery
- Legal issues surrounding immigration

Objectives:

1. Discuss aspects of Hispanic Culture that may influence Health Care interactions with Community Health and Human Service providers
2. Discuss ways to access and use interpreters and other services that address the needs of the Hispanic Community
3. Identify legal issues related to Immigration and Health Care

Attendees will have a better understanding of issues faced by Hispanic residents in Montgomery County. This seminar will help service providers understand the challenges of living in a different country, not speaking the language, and needing to find resources to make life better. Specific local community resources will be available.
