

The Fourth Annual Hittner Community Health Program
“How Does a Community Work to Reduce Racial Disparities in Cardiovascular Disease?”

Presents on:

Sunday, March 21st, 2004

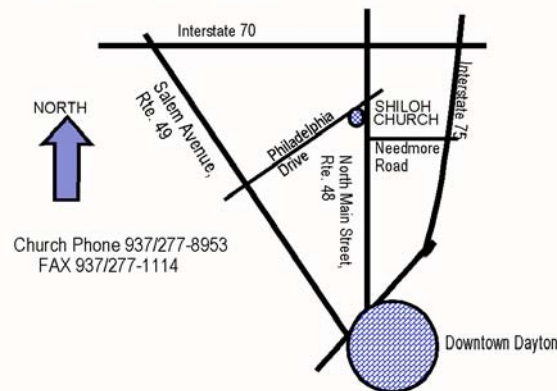

Shiloh Church – 5300 Philadelphia at N. Main, Dayton, OH

Free Lecture

Free Lecture

- ❖ Health Fair 3:00-6:30 PM
- ❖ Voices of Fellowship
(Gospel Singers) 6:45-7:15 PM
- ❖ Introduction 7:15-7:30 PM
Alonzo Patterson, III, MD
Wright State University School of Medicine
- ❖ Free Lecture 7:30-8:30 PM
Health in America: Why Does Race Matter?
Carol Bryant Payne, MSN, DrPHc
U.S. Dept. of Housing & Urban Development, Baltimore
- ❖ Refreshments 8:30-9:00 PM
(Gospel Singers will perform)

Shiloh United Church of Christ, 5300 Philadelphia Drive at North Main Street

For more information – contact 937-258-5555

or visit our Web site at:

<http://www.med.wright.edu/hsm/education.html#hittner>

Sponsored by

Shiloh Church, Sinclair Community College, Good Samaritan Hospital, Greater Dayton Area Hospital Association & Wright State University School of Medicine